

Chervil Cottage
Chideock

Set within both an area of outstanding natural beauty and a conservation area, is this quaint and beautifully presented Grade II listed, semi-detached cottage. Offering charming and characterful accommodation including open-plan kitchen/dining room, sitting room, three bedrooms and shower room. Externally, there is a westerly facing garden, mainly laid to lawn and patio with a variety of mature plants and trees. There is an outbuilding forming a utility room with WC and to the front of the property there is off-road parking for one car. EPC rating F.

The historic village of Chideock, offers beautiful countryside and coastal walks, nearby beaches and the popular Anchor pub at Seatown. Seatown is a pretty seaside village just a 10-minute walk along a nearby footpath where the spectacular Golden Cap towers above. Much of the coast is controlled by the National Trust and designated as a World Heritage site. Within the village of Chideock, there are useful local amenities including an excellent general store a short walk from the property, a public house, a sub-Post Office, churches, and a frequent bus service to Bridport. The vibrant market town of Bridport is situated approximately 2.5 miles east of the village, just a 10-minute drive, while the county town of Dorchester, with its mainline rail service to London Waterloo and Bristol Temple Meads, is around 18 miles away.

Entrance to this early 19th Century property, featuring coursed Lias stone walls to the front elevation is gained via a wooden storm porch with wooden door opening onto reception / dining hall. The room features a fitted shelving unit with radiator cover beneath. Stairs rise to the first floor.

The front aspect sitting room is a good size and offers plentiful natural light via two front aspect windows. There is stone fireplace with log burning stove and wooden mantle above. French doors lead out to the garden where there is immediate access to a utility room with WC and space for a freezer and plumbing for a washing machine.

The dual aspect kitchen/dining room is a real feature of this lovely characterful home with wooden ceiling and a comprehensive range of cottage style wall and base units with wooden worksurface over and Butler sink fitted. There is a built-in double oven and ceramic hob with extractor over. The Lias stone wall provides a feature to the room and there is plentiful space for dining furniture.

Stairs lead to the landing area offering access to all first-floor rooms. There is a loft hatch to the loft space. Two cupboards provide valuable storage solutions and the hot water cylinder and immersion back up, recently fitted with a new element.

There are three bedrooms at the property with generous fitted wardrobe solutions to bedroom one. Both bedrooms one and two offer a dual aspect to ensure good natural light to the room. Bedroom three benefits a rear aspect window overlooking the garden.

The main bathroom has a generous side aspect window and has been fitted with a suite comprising wash hand basin, set into vanity base with storage beneath, WC and large, triple-size shower cubicle. The former window creates a recessed area, used as a display space.

The property boasts a sunny and mature garden, mainly laid to lawn with patio area abutting the rear of the property. There is an outbuilding used for log storage.
