Situation

Dorchester town is rich in Roman heritage, with sites such as the Dorset County Museum and Maiden Castle offering glimpses into its past. It is also well known for its literary connections to Thomas Hardy and being set amongst picturesque rural countryside. Dorchester offers shopping and social facilities with cinemas, museums, leisure centre and weekly market. There are many excellent restaurants, public houses and riverside walks. Doctor's, dentist's surgeries and the Dorset County Hospital are close by. Brewery Square is set within the heart of Dorchester and is a vibrant area offering further shopping and eating facilities with a central open space hosting several events throughout the year. There are train links to London Waterloo, Bristol Temple Meads, Weymouth and other coastal towns and villages, and there are regular bus routes to adjoining towns. The stunning surrounding countryside, and majestic Jurassic Coast, just a short drive away, make it a perfect balance of town and rural living.

Accommodation

Entrance

Upon entry to the property, you are taken through to a porch area, creating the perfect spot to decant outdoor wear before heading into the sitting room.

Sitting Room

The sitting room offers good-size dimensions and features tasteful wood-effect flooring and a front aspect window, allowing natural light to flood the room.

Kitchen

The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base level units with worksurfaces over and splash back. Space is allocated for appliances and there is space also for a small dining table and chairs if desired. Sliding doors provide direct access onto the rear garden.

Bedrooms

There are two bedrooms at the property, receiving natural light from either a front or rear aspect window and both benefitting from fitted storage.

Shower Room

The shower room is furnished with a shower cubicle, WC and wash hand basin with vanity storage below. The room is complete with tiled walls.

Outside
The garden to the rear is predominantly shingled, offering a low-maintenance outdoor space with a variety of established shrubs and plants. A paved path leads through the garden to a dedicated patio area, perfect for outdoor seating and rear pedestrian gate. An allocated parking space is also offered.
