Bridge Lane, London,
NW11 0EB

Finchley's Estates are delighted to present this fabulous 1st floor, two bedroom flat in the heart of Temple Fortune for sale.

Situated in a sought after purpose-built block, the flat has two double bedrooms (one of which has fitted wardrobes installed), a bright living room with access to a small balcony and a separate modern kitchen. The kitchen also benefits from an integrated dishwasher and washer dryer. There is a great bathroom in the property with a separate bath and shower cubicle. The block is well maintained and has a brand new secure front door to the building and a state of the art security intercom system installed to all flats. Parking is also available on a first come first serve basis.

The property is situated a stone's throw away from the local high street with shops including Marks and Spencer and Waitrose along with a host of independent cafés and shops and also boasts excellent transport links being within close distance to Golders Green station on the Northern Line.

The flat is within the catchment area of some of the most highly sought after schools in North West London.
