A beautifully kept and immaculate home that has been decorated tastefully and with great attention to detail. In a great location with multiple Metrolink stops in a easily walkable distance. The home has a cosy living room with a singular bow window that looks on to the facing woodland area. Extra added details of the wall incorporated log burning fireplace and downward lighting creates a fashionable and fresh feel.

To the rear is the open plan kitchen/dining area that has been well designed with a breakfast bar that acts as a partition from the kitchen to the dining area. Double doors that lead out to a sizeable garden with a patio area ideal to sit out on the summer nights and also a lawn area perfect for children to play.

Upstairs the property hosts three bedrooms, two of which are good size double rooms and one single bedroom. A stylish and modern bathroom with contemporary tiling, a free standing bath with over head shower, W/C and wash basin.

The property benefits from a large double driveway that has been beautifully paved and ideal for the modern family.
