Anchor Street

No Chain. Tucked away in the heart of Taffs Well, this charming stone fronted home offers a delightful blend of character features and practical living across two spacious storeys. With its inviting hallway arch, coved ceilings, original fireplaces, and wooden floors, the house holds timeless appeal while catering to everyday comfort. The living and sitting rooms provide a sociable, open layout that's both light-filled and cosy, while the stylish kitchen and handy utility space make day-to-day living a breeze. Upstairs, you'll find three double bedrooms, a separate study or dressing room, and a stylish four-piece bathroom complete with a roll-top bath and separate shower.

Outside, the rear garden is perfect for relaxing or entertaining with a mix of lawn, seating areas and mature borders, plus rear lane access. There's also the rare bonus of gated side access to the front which leads to the back garden and offers additional storage.

Anchor Street enjoys a quiet, tucked-away location in the popular village of Taffs Well. With its close-knit community feel, local amenities, cafés and pubs nearby, and beautiful walks along the Taff Trail or Garth Mountain, it's a superb spot for those wanting easy access to nature while being only around 15 minutes from Cardiff city centre. Taffs Well train station is just a short walk away, offering regular services into Cardiff and beyond, while excellent road links, including the A470 and M4, make commuting straightforward.

Entrance Hall

Entered via a double glazed PVC front door with an obscure glazed window above. The hallway features a coved ceiling with ceiling arch detail, a radiator, and a cupboard housing the electric consumer unit and meter. There's an under-stairs alcove with a small double glazed window offering natural light, and a squared archway opens into the kitchen.

Kitchen
