Offers In The Region Of £1,400,000

We are excited to present a unique and versatile investment opportunity in the heart of the Lake District—a traditional detached Lakeland property situated near the serene Coniston Water. This freehold estate is not just a stunning residence but a remarkable business prospect, offering multiple revenue streams through two self-contained holiday cottages, a ground-floor studio, and a detached annex.

Set on an expansive 0.37-acre plot, this beautifully presented property features meticulously landscaped gardens, ample parking, and the convenience of an in-and-out driveway. Its crown jewel is the breathtaking panoramic views, stretching across the surrounding countryside, the tranquil lake, and the charming village of Coniston, all framed by the iconic "Old Man," Dow Crag, and Yewdale Fells.

The main residence, How Head Cottage, dating back to circa 1750, has been tastefully modernised over the past seven years, blending historic charm with contemporary comfort. It boasts a spacious lounge/diner, a well-equipped kitchen, a utility room, three bedrooms—including one with an en suite—and a family bathroom. Adding to the property's appeal are two additional cottages: Cottage One, a charming one-bedroom home attached to How Head Cottage, and Cottage Two, located to the rear, both offering captivating lake views and currently successfully renting as self-contained holiday lets. The ground-floor studio provides an additional cosy living space, while the detached one-bedroom annex offers yet another income or accommodation opportunity.

This property is a rare gem for those seeking a harmonious blend of tranquil living and outstanding investment potential in one of the UK's most sought-after locations.
