Situated in an ever popular location this three bedroom forecourted home has been finished with modern stylings and boasts spacious living accommodation. The home boasts impressive high ceilings and a good size yard to the rear. The local area offers a variety of amenities including schools, shops and park.

This attractive red brick traditional terrace home benefits from a forecourt to the front. An entrance hallway has been fitted with laminate flooring and leads to the reception rooms and staircase. The first reception room is situated to the front aspect and is suited to being a dining room or snug. The second reception room is of excellent proportions with white Oak effect laminate flooring and tasteful décor. There is a useful under stairs storage cupboard and access to the kitchen. The kitchen has been fitted with a good range of handleless flat fronted high gloss cabinets with butcher block worktops and complimentary matte black hexagon tile backsplash with integrated appliances.

To the first floor you will find a double bedroom and two single bedroom which are all tastefully finished. The bathroom benefits from a three piece suite comprising; a bath with rainfall shower attachment and glass screen, close couple WC and grey shaker style vanity sink. The bathroom is part tiled with matte black fittings. To the rear of the property a good size yard offers plenty of space for outdoor seating.
