The Morrows Carter Lane

Flamborough, Bridlington, YO15 1LW

Offers Over £240,000

Discover the allure of village living in Flamborough with this charming two bedroom detached bungalow. From the moment you arrive, the property captivates with its front garden space, providing a welcoming introduction to your new home. The convenience of off-road parking and a garage ensures that daily life is both practical and hassle-free.

Step inside and experience a living space designed for comfort and warmth. The large bay window not only adds character but floods the room with natural light, adding to the inviting ambiance.

The kitchen offers ample worktop and cupboard space. Whether you're preparing a family feast or experimenting with new recipes, this kitchen provides the functionality and style to meet your needs.

Both of the bedrooms are generously sized, serving as comfortable doubles. One of them even boasts an integrated vanity table and storage space, adding a touch of convenience and sophistication to your daily routine.

Outside, the spacious and private garden beckons, providing a tranquil retreat where you can enjoy the outdoors in peace. With ample potential for landscaping and personalization, the garden becomes an extension of your living space.

Situated in the heart of Flamborough, this property not only offers a comfortable living space but also places you in close proximity to local amenities and schools. Convenience meets charm in this delightful bungalow, where the potential for creating your dream home awaits. Don't miss the opportunity to make this property yours and embrace the laid-back lifestyle of village living in Flamborough.
