Hales Farm Cottage is set within a beautiful rural area and offers elevated far-reaching views into the Warwickshire Countryside.

Access is directly from the Fosse Way with a wide entrance leading onto a long winding track skirting the edge of a field around to the property set well back from the road. Flanking the drive is an area of hard standing on one side and a grass area opposite which could be railed off to create a small paddock. Beyond that is the railed paddock.

There is a large general-purpose steel framed barn with openings on two sides and a lean-to timber office, business rates have been payable on the barn.

On the far side of a further area of hard standing is a two-bedroom static caravan which has been in residential use, we understand, since 2015.

LOCATION

The County town of Warwickshire and medieval stronghold, Warwick is a historic market town, best known for its world famous castle. A popular tourist destination, William the Conqueror founded Warwick Castle in 1068 on his way to Yorkshire to deal with the rebellion in the north. The original wooden motte-and-bailey castle was rebuilt in stone in the 12th century. During the Hundred Years War, the facade opposite the town was refortified, resulting in one of the most recognisable examples of 14th century military architecture. The great fire of Warwick in 1694 destroyed much of the medieval town and as a result most of the buildings post date this period.

The town lies upon a bend in the River Avon, directly adjoining the neighbouring town of Leamington Spa and under ten miles from Kenilworth and the city of Coventry. The town provides a variety of boutique shops, gastro pubs, bistros and cafes. The town hosts a variety of annual festivals, such as the Folk Festival and Christmas Victorian Evening. The Warwick Racecourse, Warwick Boat Club and Warwick Tennis Club are all notable exclusive sporting venues in the town. Theatre and live performance can be experience at The Bridge House Theatre, The Dream Factory and Warwick Arts Centre in addition to the nearby Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Leamington Assembly Rooms, Royal Spa Centre and the Belgrade Theatre.

A consistent lure to the area for families is Warwick School for boys, which is believed to be the oldest boys school in the country, along with its sister school, Kings High School for Girls and Warwick Preparatory and Junior Schools. In addition there are two state run schools and several primary schools. The Univesity of Warwick is among the highest rated in the country.
