KEY FEATURES

The Property

Approached by a long private drive, Rye Piece House sits gracefully within its grounds, a serene garden with vibrant lavender bushes stretches toward rolling fields and distant trees surrounded by a sweeping lawn, mature planting and uninterrupted views across Chipping Campden and the countryside.

The main residence is both spacious and welcoming, with four elegant reception rooms, including two charming sitting rooms and a formal dining room leading from the kitchen. SELLER INSIGHT

“ When we first arrived at Rye Piece House, it was the views that stopped us in our tracks - the sweep of the valley below, the distant view of Broadway Tower, and a stillness that seemed to wrap itself around both house and garden.

Mornings often begin with a swim, no matter the season. In summer, sunlight shines on the water; in winter, mist hangs in the valley while deer graze in the fields. Inside, the home is generous with its light. The kitchen and breakfast room basks in sunshine all day, while in colder months the lounge's open fire and the snug's wood burner offer warmth and comfort.

Approaching along our 250-yard gated drive feels like entering a private world. The recent opening between kitchen and dining room has made entertaining effortless, the flow inviting guests to linger, with a log fire in sight from the kitchen. Every room has been carefully renovated, making the home as functional as it is beautiful.

For us, convenience has been another quiet luxury. We can step out for spectacular walks straight from the door or head into Chipping Campden for everyday essentials. The award-winning Ebrington Arms is just a five-minute stroll away - a rare treat to have such a pub within walking distance.

The beautiful garden faces south and gifts us both sunrise and sunsets, with skies that transform from gold to violet. Our west-facing gazebo is where we've toasted many evenings with a glass of wine, the light fading across the fields.

Over the years, Rye Piece House has welcomed friends from near and far. The separate cottage offers privacy for longer stays, while guest rooms in the main house, each with its own bathroom, make visitors feel at home. With parking for eight or more cars, hosting has never been a challenge.

Though our nearest neighbours aren't right next door, village life is close and vibrant - from the farm shop and licensed café to the cricket club and seasonal events. Chipping Campden, just two miles away, offers excellent schools, churches, a theatre, and the start of the Cotswold Way. If I could give one piece of advice to the next owner, it would be this: sit back, let the silence wash over you, and take in the magic of these Cotswolds surroundings.*

STEP OUTSIDE

The detached annexe offers complete independence, with its own sitting room, kitchen, cloakroom, bedroom and bathroom. Perfectly suited for visiting family, multi-generational living or private guest accommodation, it provides comfort and privacy whilst remaining effortlessly connected to the main house.

At the far end of the gardens lies one of the property's most enviable features — a superb indoor swimming pool complex. Designed for year-round enjoyment, it creates a private haven of leisure and wellbeing, set within the most tranquil of surroundings.

The Gardens and Grounds

The gardens are as captivating as the house itself. A sweeping terrace provides the perfect setting for outdoor dining and entertaining, while the manicured lawns lead to a charming summer house. With uninterrupted vistas over open fields, this is a home where the outdoors is an ever-changing canvas.

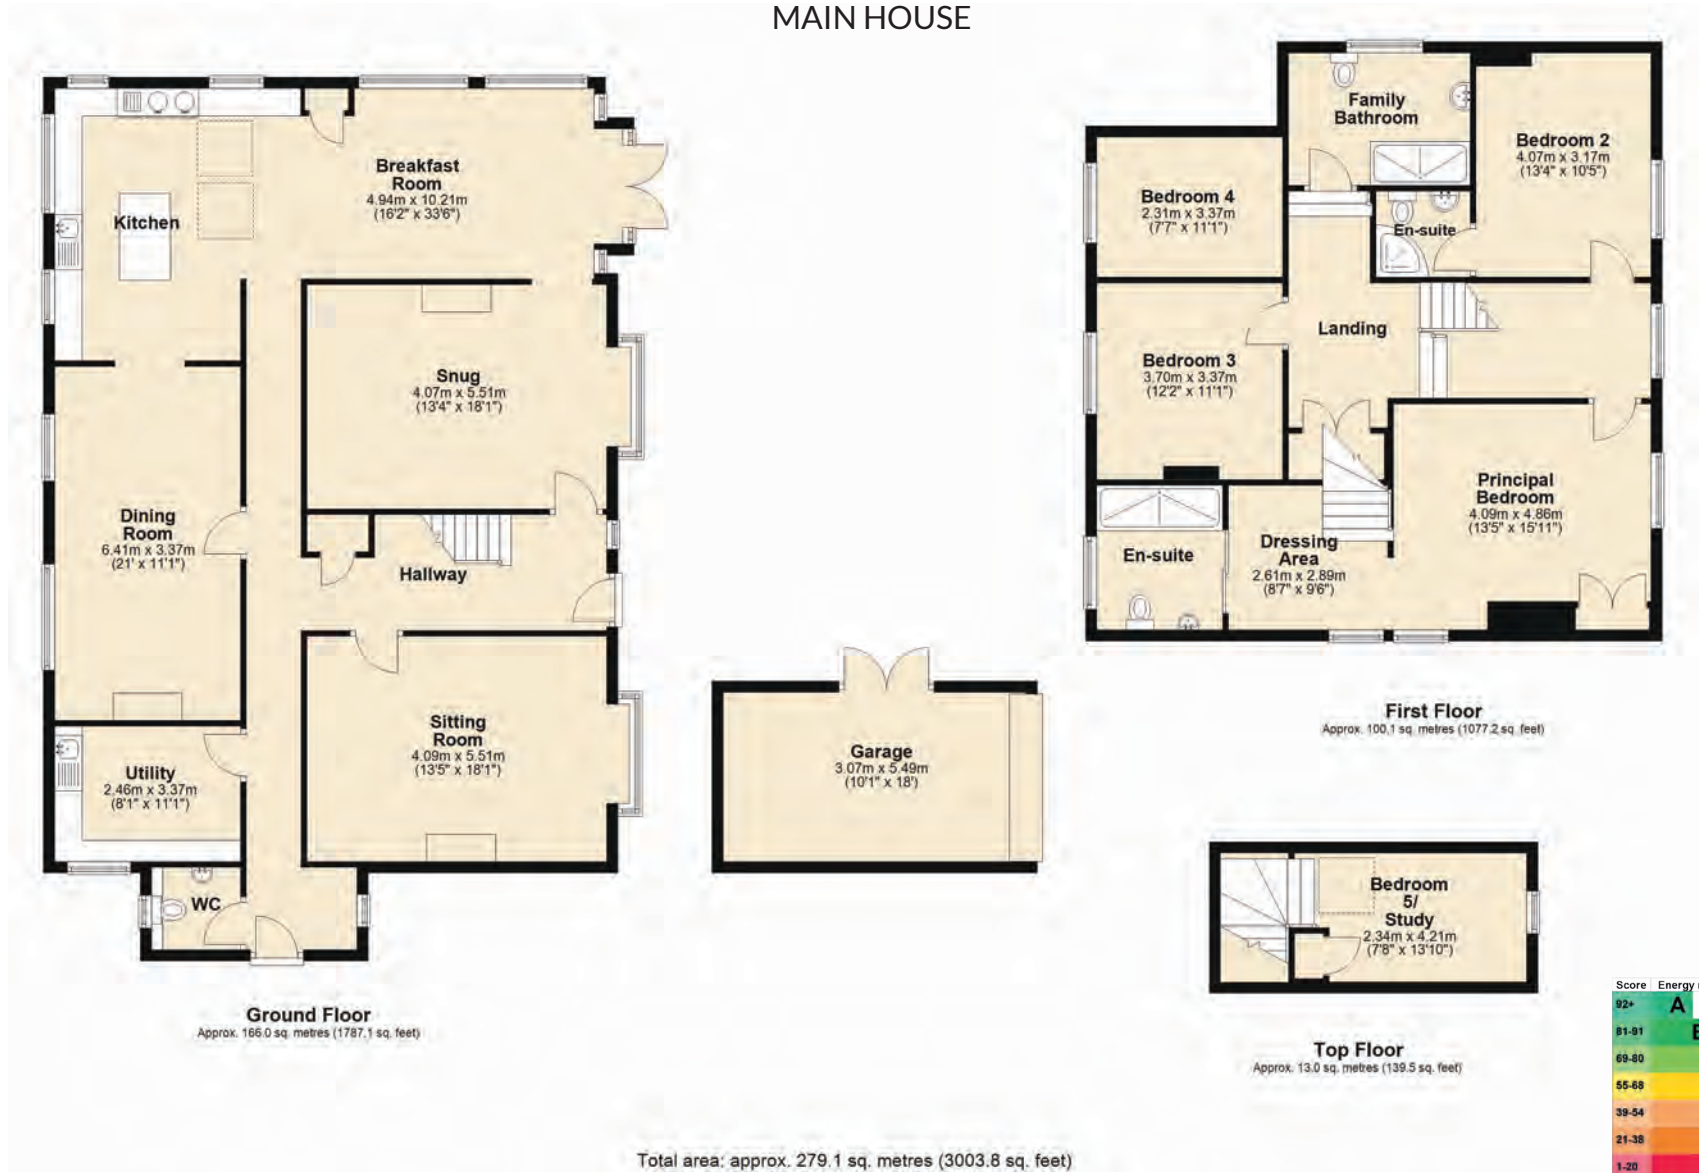

LOCATION

Rye Piece House is set on the edge of the delightful North Cotswold village of Ebrington, perfectly positioned between Chipping Campden to the west and Shipston-on-Stour to the east. The village itself is rich in charm and community spirit, with a parish church and the award-winning Ebrington Arms public house. It also falls within the catchment of the highly respected Chipping Campden School.

For everyday needs, both Chipping Campden and Shipston-on-Stour are close at hand, while Stratford-upon-Avon offers a broader choice of shopping, leisure and cultural amenities. Excellent transport links include the M40 (J15) just 18 miles to the north, providing swift access to the Midlands and beyond. Rail connections from Moreton-in-Marsh reach London Paddington in around 92 minutes, making this a wonderfully well-connected rural retreat.
