DESCRIPTION

Welcome to Brettenham Grove, a select, quality, small development of just 4 properties, all with generous plots and South-facing rear gardens, being built by the multi award-winning developer Granville Developments, in the small charming village of Brettenham, lying in the very heart of the Suffolk countryside. Located between the historic, cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds, and the market towns of Stowmarket and Sudbury, it offers residents an authentic taste of rural England along with all the advantages of contemporary living.

To locate this property, please use the postcode IP7 7PB.

SPECIFICATION

This home's versatile spaces make it perfect for busy family life. The impressive open-plan kitchen / dining / family area is flooded with natural light by roof lanterns and a pair of panoramic bi-folding doors that open-out onto the patio and rear garden, while the generous dual-aspect sitting room has a bay window to the front as well as a feature fireplace. A separate study, cloakroom and utility room with outside access complete the ground floor. Upstairs, four good-sized bedrooms offer plenty of personal space, with the principal complemented by an en-suite shower room.

If reserved early enough, and subject to build progress, we also offer purchasers the opportunity to personalise their new home, with a choice of kitchen units from our standard range, as well as tiling to the first floor bathroom and en-suite. These choices are offered to all 'from plan' purchasers giving you the opportunity to create a family home, finished to be as unique as you are.

DIRECTIONS

From Bury St Edmunds, proceed along the A14 towards Ipswich. Take the left turning, sign posted to Woolpit and on reaching the roundabout, take the first exit. Continue past the Garage and Health Centre and turn right, sign posted towards Rattlesden. On reaching the junction, turn left and carry on towards the village. Continue down the hill and at the junction, turn right. Continue through the village and out towards Felsham. On reaching Felsham, bear left at a triangular green, signposted to Brettenham. Follow the road towards the village and turn left at the junction, signposted to Brettenham. On reaching the village turn right into Church Road, and continue past the Centre Academy East Anglia and the church. Turn left, signposted to Finborough, into Buxhall Road, and follow the road along. Turn left into Old School Corner, where the properties are located, after a short distance on the right.

BRETENHAM & AREA

Brettenham is a small village, about 11.5 miles South East of Bury St Edmunds, located south of the A14 and east of the A134. It has a community feel, with much of the activity centred around the Village Hall, and there is a cricket club. In addition there is a parish Church, and the village is home to two Independent Schools, with a close working relationship with the village. Old Buckenham Hall School is an independent school for children aged between 7 and 13 years. A number of places exist for boarders and there is also a Pre-Preparatory Department which takes children 5 - 8 years of age, and a Nursery for the younger children. Old Buckenham Hall School is the setting for the village Picnic in the Park and the Bonfire and Fireworks display. The second school is Centre Academy East Anglia, one of 'the most successful and unique special needs schools in the UK.

The nearest post office and convenience store is around 3 miles away in the neighbouring village of Hitcham, or you could make a short 4-mile trip to the Co-op supermarket in historic Lavenham. A wider range of stores and main supermarkets are available in the market towns of Bury St Edmunds, Stowmarket and Sudbury.

Likewise, the modern amenities, shops and leisure opportunities of bustling towns are always close by. Around 9 miles away, Stowmarket is home to several supermarkets, the Regal Theatre and the John Peel Centre for the Performing Arts, while Bury St Edmunds – just 11 miles to the North and famed for its beautiful cathedral, vast abbey ruins, Theatre Royal and Greene King Brewery – also hosts numerous quality high street brands, household names and fashionable boutiques, amongst its historic streets and contemporary Arc shopping centre.

BURY ST EDMUNDS & AREA

Sitting amidst beautiful countryside, Bury St Edmunds is an historic town and the second largest in Suffolk. Surrounded by many picturesque villages, some of which offer good local amenities, it offers a wide range of cultural, educational and recreational facilities.

Features of particular note include St Edmundsbury Cathedral with its Millennium Tower, the famous Abbey Gardens with the original ruins and The Georgian Theatre Royal, which has recently been the subject of a restoration programme and The Apex, a live performance venue for concerts, comedy and dance, together with a contemporary art gallery. In addition, there are two cinemas, one of which is a multi-screen complex and a sports centre.

Bury St Edmunds and the surrounding villages boast excellent schools and further education is catered for at the West Suffolk College.

The town benefits from extremely good shopping facilities with a twice weekly market and a wide range of independent traders, national chains, five supermarkets and the arc shopping centre, opened in 2009. In addition, there are many pubs and restaurants which cater for a variety of tastes.

The A14 dual carriageway heading west from Bury St Edmunds provides easy access to Newmarket, Cambridge, the Midlands, Stansted Airport and London, via the M11. Stowmarket and Ipswich, both with direct rail links to London's Liverpool Street, the East Coast and the A12 are all readily accessed by heading east.

TRANSPORT LINKS

Brettenham sits conveniently within a network of peaceful country roads, which in turn allow straightforward connections to the main thoroughfares and major towns within the region. You can reach the A134 in 7 miles, where you can then head north to Bury St Edmunds and onwards to Thetford, or south to Sudbury and Colchester. At Bury St Edmunds, you can pick up the A14 heading west towards Newmarket, Cambridge, the M11, Stansted and the A1 and Midlands, or East towards Stowmarket, Ipswich, Felixstowe, and the A12 towards Lowestoft, or Colchester, Chelmsford and ultimately London. From Sudbury, the A131 offers a direct route towards Braintree or Chelmsford.

Around 10 miles to the east, with junctions for Stowmarket and Ipswich, the A14 is also the fastest route to Felixstowe and the connection with the A12 northbound – for all the picturesque towns and villages amongst Suffolk's stunning nature reserves and coastline.

The nearest train stations are both about 8 miles away, in Stowmarket and Elmswell, and about 12 miles away in Bury St Edmunds, from where regular services run to Newmarket, Cambridge, Norwich, Colchester, Chelmsford, London and Ipswich, where you can change for the scenic Suffolk coastal branch line. Stowmarket has a mainline link to London's Liverpool Street, in approximately 80 minutes.
