Highfield, Long Itchington Road, Offchurch, Leamington Spa

An outstanding opportunity to acquire a unique detached period country residence of character, providing very spacious five bedroomed accommodation in mature grounds extending to approximately 1.77 acres, including leisure complex and pool, on the periphery of this highly regarded village location whilst being relatively close in proximity to the ongoing HS2 development.

Offchurch Village

Is a popular and convenient rural village location, ideally sited approximately 4 miles to the east of the town centre, surrounded by beautiful Warwickshire countryside. The village has limited facilities including the well known public house The Stag, however there are convenient local amenities available within Radford Semele and Leamington Spa itself, including shops, schools and a variety of recreational facilities. The village has consistently proved to be extremely popular.

ehB are pleased to offer Highfield, Long Itchington Road, Offchurch which is an opportunity to acquire a 1920's built detached country residence of substantial proportions, with a most impressive leisure complex with swimming pool. The property has had a considerable amount of modernisation carried out including an impressive extended living/kitchen arrangement, but does have considerable scope for further development to purchasers own requirements. This particular property is truly unique and inspection is highly recommended.
