

This attractive converted three bedroom semi detached property is situated in a charming courtyard in an attractive village location, conveniently just north-east of Leamington.

Briefly Comprising;

Entrance hallway, spacious through living room, ground floor cloakroom, dining/kitchen with double doors to garden and utility cupboard. First floor landing, master bedroom with fitted wardrobes and en-suite shower room, two further bedrooms and re-fitted family bathroom. Off road parking. Attractive lawned and decked rear garden. Gas radiator heating, double glazing.

The Old Courtyard forms part of this development within the village of Weston Under Wetherley, which itself lies conveniently just north-east of the town centre, offering good access back into Cubbington, Lillington and Leamington itself, and other centres beyond such as Kenilworth, Rugby and Coventry.

The development is set within rolling countryside with the courtyard itself having a number of predominantly period converted properties centring around the courtyard.
