Neville House, 9 Union Road

Is a most impressive detached Regency Period residence of both style and character, which has been subject to sympathetic modernisation and improvement successfully retaining much of the properties original character features with a high level of appointment throughout. The property was believed to have been originally constructed in the 1860's with much of the modernisation works carried out over the last 15 years. The property contains many notable features of which the converted basement, superbly appointed living/kitchen and period style garden room/dining room, which takes back some of the walled garden, are particularly noteworthy.

The property provides four good sized bedrooms, the master bedroom featuring a travertine tiled en-suite shower room and occupying a particularly pleasant position with walled landscaped garden, off road car parking and garage facility within this highly regarded location. The agents consider internal inspection to be essential for the style, character and level of appointment of this unique property to be fully appreciated.
