Description

Kirkdale House is an impressive 5 bedroom country residence with extensive gardens of nearly 2 acres. The property stands to the northern periphery of the village adjacent to the Church of St Mary.

Whilst the property would benefit from a programme of modernisation it offers excellent scope to improve and has a wealth of interesting period features. The kitchen is fitted and has a large adjoining utility. There are three further reception rooms all of good proportion and a grand staircase at the centre. On the first floor there are 5 bedrooms two with en-suites and a house bathroom.

The gardens wrap around the property extending to approx 2 acres. There is a double garage with large adjoining workshop and offers scope as an annexe (subject to necessary consents). The gardens are private and largely laid to lawn with a variety of mature trees making up the borders.

Huggate is a small village and civil parish in the East Riding of Yorkshire. It is situated approximately 13 miles north-west of Beverley town centre, 9 miles west of Driffield town centre and 7 miles from Pocklington to the south-west with an excellent range of amenities on offer, including supermarkets, coffee shops, restaurants, doctors surgery with pharmacy, Francis Scaife leisure centre, and a choice of local primary and secondary schools. The stunning Burnby Hall gardens are also located in the town.
