Description

Known as 'The House', 45 Town Street comprises a fine looking detached house principally of stone construction set back from the road on a slightly raised site. The front elevation is faced in 'dressed stone' and most attractive in appearance, complimented by the sash windows either side and a box bay window.

The entrance hall with mosaic tiles leads through to the kitchen with dining area and french doors open to the rear garden. There are two additional reception rooms with attractive period fire surrounds, utility room and pantry.

At first floor level there are 5 bedrooms, the master with en suite shower room, and a house bathroom.

Outside vehicle access is available to the side leading to the double garage and parking area. There is a garden to the front and a good sized garden mainly laid to lawn within walled and hedged boundaries.

Old Malton is highly desirable and convenient location within a mile or so of Malton's Market Place. From the property there are walks along the banks of the river Derwent in open countryside. Malton offers a fine variety of amenities with the rail service providing links to the Intercity service at York and a regular bus services. There are a good variety of shops, regular markets and events together with eating establishments and sporting and social clubs.

The A64 bypasses the town providing good road communications east and west and to the motorway network. The Wolds, Moors, Howardian Hills Natural Landscape (formerly ANOB) and East Coast are also within easy reach.
