Description

Evoking the ambience of a hunting lodge in the snow-driven wilds of the Arctic, the Alaska lodge by Lissett is the perfect retreat for the discerning adventurer. This inviting home is inspired by a love of the great outdoors and the thrill of exploration, perfectly blending traditional and modern, natural textures and the highest-quality fittings and furniture. South-facing with lake frontage on Plot 38, all you need to add is good food and drink, and great company.

This lodge is manufactured by Lissett Homes, a leading manufacturer of Park Homes and Luxury Lodges. For thirty years they have been developing quality custom-built leisure accommodation in an extensive range of styles, demonstrating quality, comfort, and elegance. Lissett's philosophy towards construction is design and build without compromise, using the best proven techniques and materials available to achieve the highest quality standards.

Lissett continuously strives to achieve the best through a relentless pursuit of product development and improvement. Furthermore, their emphasis is on quality, not quantity, all built to the same exacting high standard, producing quality homes that have become the benchmark within the industry. Based in the nearby town of Pocklington, Lissett can offer also an unrivalled after-sales service.
