Description

A brand new 2 bedrooomed mid terraced house forming part of an exclusive new development by Scothern Developments. Milam Cottage fronts the Main St and is one of four similar properties. The appearance is traditional and most attractive 'faced' in brick under a pantile roof. There is off road parking divided by traditional metal Estate railings and a walled/fenced garden area to the rear.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully designed with economical running costs in mind and is fitted to a high specification (available on request) and comprises as follows: entrance hall, cloakroom, sitting room, stylish kitchen with french doors to the rear garden. 2 bedrooms and bathroom at first floor level and a home office at 2nd floor level.

The kitchen (Howdens) is fully integrated with cooker, hob, dishwasher, microwave and washing machine set within oak worktops and up stands. The doors throughout are in oak and the bathroom fittings are quality 'Ideal Standard'.

FTTP broadband (Full-fibre) with simple plug-in router setup and externally there is the EV charging point.

This property offers an exciting opportunity to purchase a new high-quality home constructed by Scothern Developments, local builders of high repute.

The village is situated off the A64 which provides quick road communications to Malton, York and the motorway network to the West and towards Scarborough to the East. There is a well regarded Public House (The Ham & Cheese Inn), Chapel and Playground in the village and Primary Schooling is available at the adjacent villages of Settrington and Rillington. The village is set in attractive countryside, but within an easy drive to Malton where an excellent range of amenities are available along with a busy weekly market. Amenities include; the railway station with links to the Intercity service at York, sporting and social clubs, doctors surgery and hospital.
