Anglotown are offering to the market a second floor apartment with a lovely view over Poundbury. The apartment is approached through a communal hall with stairs to the apartment's front door. There are two double bedrooms, a bathroom and a large open plan kitchen living room. Outside there is a communal garden and allocated parking space. The real beauty of this apartment is that it is extremely well presented.

Poundbury is the brain child of King Charles III which embraces a diverse style of architecture combining residential and retail properties to create a village feel. Amenities include Waitrose, Spar, various cafes, bakeries and public houses. There is a doctors surgery, dentists, chiropractors and a veterinary surgery. There are several boutiques, hairdressers and beauty parlours. It is home to an award winning butchers, deli and a splendid Italian bakery.

Dorchester town centre is only nearby and boasts many modern facilities, whilst being steeped in history.
