Location...

Southover High Street is a pretty road located in the heart of historic Lewes town centre within the popular Southover Area. The property is located opposite the Tudor built Anne of Cleves House, now a museum open to the public on select days of year and featuring a delightful garden tea room. The area boasts some of Lewes' oldest properties and the Priory Ruins and pretty Grange Gardens are within striking distance of the front door.

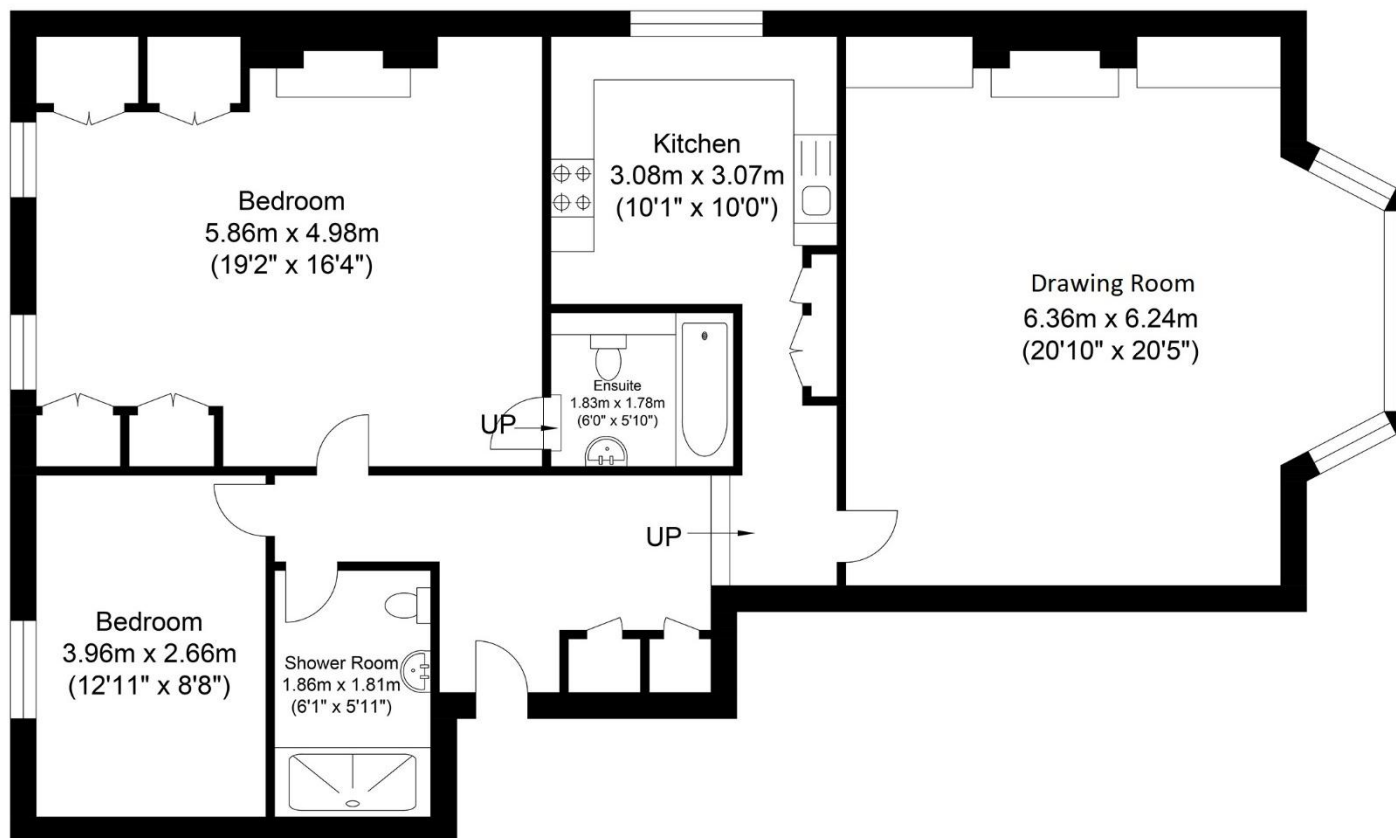

The property is within easy walking distance of Lewes Mainline Railway Station offering regular and direct services to London, Brighton and Gatwick as well as the coast.

The Southover area is popular for its proximity to the High Street and Railway Station but also access to the countryside, with large recreation grounds nearby and access to the South Downs at the end of Southover High Street.

There is a choice of popular public houses offering dining, within the road and within the wider area.

The Depot Cinema, leisure centre and numerous sports clubs and popular schools, catering for all ages from nursery to tertiary college are all within easy walking distance of the property.
