Rosary Gardens, SW7

A modern two-bedroom apartment situated on an exceptional street in South Kensington, featuring exclusive direct access to the private communal gardens of Brechin Place. Additionally, the property boasts a private entrance for convenient access.

A contemporary and spacious two-bedroom flat, available furnished, situated on the lower ground floor of a Victorian red brick house in South Kensington. The property features its own private entrance, conveniently located just off Old Brompton Road and close to Gloucester Road.

Upon entry, one is greeted by a small hallway leading to the carpeted living room at the front of the flat. The separate kitchen is equipped with integrated appliances, including a dishwasher. The master bedroom, located at the rear of the flat, offers extensive storage and rare direct access to the communal gardens. The second double bedroom also provides ample storage space. The newly refurbished bathroom includes both a shower and a separate bath.

Rosary Gardens is conveniently situated a short distance from Gloucester Road, which offers a diverse selection of cafes, shops, and restaurants, including the Waitrose supermarket and Paul's bakery.
