A meticulously refurbished three-bedroom house situated within a prestigious gated development on Hollywood Road, Chelsea. Finished to an exceptional standard throughout by a professional interior designer, this elegant residence offers three generously proportioned double bedrooms and showcases contemporary design within a sought-after enclave in one of London's most desirable locations.

This stylish four-storey home in central Chelsea features high-quality finishes, wood flooring throughout, and excellent natural light. The ground floor includes a spacious entrance, an eat-in kitchen with integrated appliances, and access to a west-facing decked terrace. A utility room and separate garage are also provided. The first floor offers a generous reception/dining room with a built-in library. On the second floor are two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a modern family bathroom. The top floor hosts the master suite with ample storage, an en-suite bathroom with separate bath and shower, and access to a private roof terrace.

The property is ideally situated just off Fulham Road on Hollywood Road, within close proximity to notable local amenities including Brinkley's Wine Bar, the Hollywood Arms, and a Tesco Express. Additionally, nearby Earls Court Road offers a wide selection of retail options, such as Marks & Spencer, Simply Food and a 24-hour Tesco supermarket, ensuring convenient access to everyday essentials.
