Ennismore Gardens, SW7

This distinguished residence boasts a spacious drawing room with soaring ceilings, six generously sized double bedrooms, and six luxurious bathrooms. Additional features include a private lift and access to beautifully maintained communal gardens.

This distinguished residence has been meticulously refurbished throughout, combining timeless elegance with modern finishes. The renovation includes parquet wooden flooring across all levels, while preserving original period features such as ornate cornicing and traditional fireplaces. A private lift provides seamless access to each floor.

The ground floor comprises two versatile reception rooms, ideal for use as a library and a snug. On the first floor, the impressive drawing room boasts high ceilings and benefits from balconies on either side, offering an abundance of natural light.

The master suite occupies an entire floor and features bespoke built-in storage along with a particularly striking en-suite bathroom. The third and fourth floors accommodate four additional bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a further private terrace, providing ample space for family and guests.
