An attractive Victorian building in the heart of Brook Green, this spacious studio flat offers the perfect blend of character and convenience. The bay-fronted window fills the space with natural light, while high ceilings create a sense of openness and airiness throughout. Ideal for first-time buyers and investors, the flat features a large living/sleeping area with separate kitchen and generous storage.

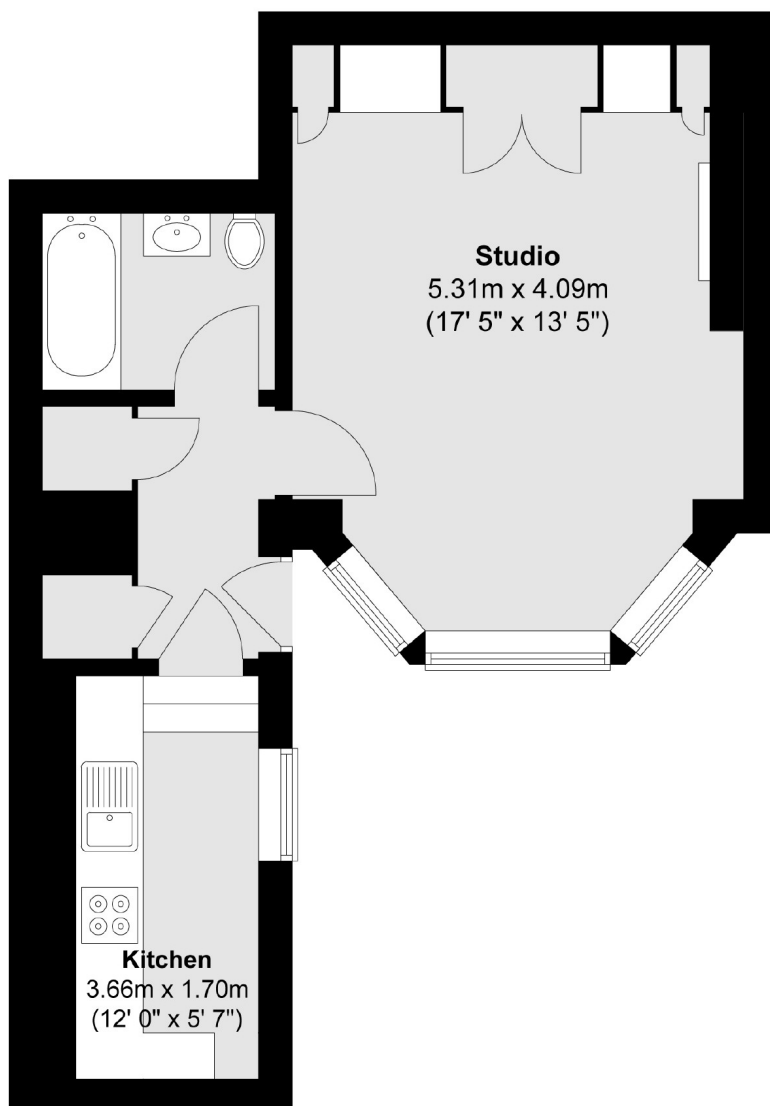

With its prime location and period charm, this flat presents excellent value for money in one of West London's most desirable areas.
