Jenkinson Estates are pleased to be able to bring to the market place this stunning converted building lying within the sought-after Cavalry Barracks and was originally the sergeant's mess. Located in Deal's South Barracks Conservation Area, this historic property offers spacious living and two double bedrooms. Upon entering the property, you are greeted with a large sitting room. This room also gives access to the cellar through a trapdoor. Through from the sitting room comes the kitchen / diner - a spacious room with modern units and ample worktop space. From the kitchen / diner you can access the rear garden, which is low maintenance with only a couple of flower beds to add a bit of colour. Going upstairs there are two bedrooms, both of which are good size doubles. One room has the benefit of a built-in cupboard whilst the other has dual windows overlooking the rear garden. The family bathroom completes this level. Cavalry Barracks was the home of Cavalry & Infantry Units from 1795. In 1896 land to the west was acquired extending the area to 30 acres making this the largest of four sites. Much of this new land was used as Drill Fields and playing fields and it is believed that the Jubilee Gates added to the Dover Road entrance commemorate Queen Victoria's Jubilee in 1887. The Depot Band was formed in 1890 with 17 musicians which was elevated to divisional band status in 1900. Since 1994 the area has been given over to re-development and the property now lies within a walled and private development with lawned parade grounds forming part of what is now maturing into a most impressive conversion of the three Royal Marines barrack sites in Deal.

This two bedroom property comes to the market with no onward chain complications and serviced by the Sole Agent Jenkinson Estates.
