Exclusively via Jenkinson Estates is this impressive, Edwardian detached home situated on The Marina, Deal. The property offers spacious versatile accommodation, being arranged over three floors and being located on the historic coastline of Deal, this property benefits from unrivalled, uninterrupted sea views. The property, accessed via an entrance hallway, opens to two reception rooms, currently being used as a dining room, which is twin bayfronted and has a feature fireplace. A reception room and a utility area then leads to the kitchen and a separate shower room. The first floor continues to impress and is currently configured with one bedroom, the family bathroom and a sitting room. This room, which could also be used as the master bedroom, also benefits from twin bay windows and offers the stunning views previously mentioned. The second floor continues with an additional two bedrooms. Externally there is an enclosed rear garden, tastefully landscaped to provide privacy and seclusion and is low maintenance. There is the benefit of rear access to the detached garage. The property offers many original features and is an arts and craft home which really must be viewed to be appreciated. The property has double glazing and has a gas fired central heating system. All viewings are strictly by appointment via the Sole Agent Jenkinson Estates.
