Renowned for their contemporary and stylish approach to modern living Jute Fields is no exception. The first phase of release will be of four detached homes, one three bedroom and three four bedroom homes. As you would expect there are different aspects and positions of these homes within the development and the pricing has been adjusted accordingly. The high end finish will include as standard, fitted kitchens furnished with Bosch appliances, herringbone flooring to the ground floor and then fully carpeted to the first floor. The luxury family bathrooms and en-suites shower rooms will be tiled and fitted with contemporary suites accordingly. Latest building regulations will mean these homes are not only highly efficient to heat but also keep the heat retained. The gardens will be turfed and fenced ready to enjoy. All properties will have parking for at least two cars. The build stage of these four homes is nearly complete and they will be ready for their new owners to enjoy immediately.
