Northolt is a town located in North West London and lies within zone 5 on the Central Line. There is good access to the West End of London and popular high street shops and restaurants in Ruislip which make the area a good choice for young professionals and families alike.

There are two stations in the area which are Northolt Central Line Tube Station (31 minutes to Tottenham Court Road) and Northolt Park Overground Station. Northolt Park is a Network Rail station served by Chiltern Railways (21 minutes to Marylebone Station).

There are also a number of local bus routes offering access to Heathrow, Ealing, Ruislip and numerous other locations. If you travel by road, the A40 is within easy reach with access to both the city and the Home Counties.
