Seclusion, peace and quiet await at this delightful period property comprising of a main residence with the benefit of a detached guest cottage. Both are set in established gardens, grounds and woodland in an enchanting location situated in a little known, tucked away position off Cottage Lane. The shared private driveway serves just three properties and leads up to the double garage and gated entrance. Beyond is the beautiful walled gardens which are mainly lawned with well stocked beds and borders. Pathways meander to the main residence and the guest cottage but also to the woodland leading off from the foot of the garden. In a corner of the woods is an octagonal studio/office surrounded by many species of trees and similarly wildlife. This is a magical setting for an individual and intriguing property.
