£1,500,000

A detached 1920s Tudor style period residence of five bedrooms, two bathrooms, five reception rooms, set back off the road behind a deep foregarden. The property is within walking distance of the town and is well proportioned to provide very comfortable family living of gross internal area 3,146 sq.ft. and being well maintained and appointed. The property enjoys mature and established gardens. The foregarden is mainly laid to lawn and formally laid out, ample parking and turning area and gated accesses lead to the beautiful rear garden featuring "the folly". The plot enjoys a good width with an overall size of over a third of an acre (0.35). With ornate part timber framing, leaded light windows and part tiled hung and herringbone brick elevations, the property has ornate brick chimneys and forms one of four properties on the road that were built from the reclaimed materials of the demolition of Bradley Hall, Kingswinford, providing an interesting history.
