INTERNAL

The entrance to the home is through a grand studded oak door, leading into a welcoming porch with tiled floor and stunning stained-glass windows. A glazed door continues through to the entrance hall, with staircase rising to the first floor and doors to the main reception rooms.

There are three reception rooms; a bright and spacious living room with large windows to the front and side elevations, and a feature fireplace with a wooden surround and wood-burning stove adding a characterful focal point to the room; a dual aspect dining room with elegant gas fireplace with tiled inlay and ornate surround, ideal for formal dining and entertaining; and a cosy snug to the rear of the entrance hall, with adjacent downstairs cloakroom.

The good-sized kitchen features a central island, ample wall units, and generous worktop space. Equipment includes a Neff double oven, induction hob located on the central island and an integrated dishwasher. A small rear glazed sunroom off the kitchen offers panoramic views of Wainhouse Tower, Sowerby Bridge, and the Norland countryside.

The kitchen provides internal access to the garage which has utility facilities including a sink, plumbing for a washing machine and space for a dryer; a second, servants' staircase leading to the upper floors, and steps down to the cellar which provides useful storage space.

On the first floor, you'll find three generously proportioned double bedrooms, two of which have fitted wardrobes. All rooms boast high ceilings and decorative coving. The traditional household bathroom includes a four-piece suite with a wooden washstand, while a modern wet room offers additional convenience. This floor also features an office space with stunning views of the valley.

The second floor houses two further bedrooms, separated by a three-piece "Jack and Jill" shower room.

EXTERNAL

Remote controlled gates give access to generous parking in front of the property with steps leading down to the sheltered garden with patio and level lawn surrounded by mature trees.
