abbotFox presents this stunning lodge, which enjoys a prime position within the popular Trimingham House Park development. Situated within easy reach of the meadow, picturesque North Norfolk coast and the Coastal Paths, this lodge enjoys a sense of peace and tranquillity hard to match.

The accommodation on offer is neatly arranged and comprises an spacious open plan living area with fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms, both with walk-in wardrobes, an en-suite shower room to the master and a family bathroom. Externally, the property offers a wrap-around balcony, perfect for enjoying outside dining.

Trimingham House Park is a popular holiday destination, with a 46 week season situated within easy reach of the popular Coastal town of Cromer and the sought after and well serviced village of Mundesley. With excellent on-site facilities including launderette, licensed clubhouse, café / restaurant and heated swimming pool, this is an ideal holiday home.

Agents Note: This is not a fully residential site. All lodge owners must have a permanent residential address.
