THE DETAIL_____

abbotFox Land & New Homes presents this serviced plot measuring 0.35 acres (stms) in a much sought after, quiet location overlooking fields just off the A11 corridor. Planning permission has been granted for a four bedroom bedroom detached bungalow.

Permission has been obtained. Confirmation of this planning permission and associated documents can be found using Breckland Council's planning portal and the reference PL/2024/0807/FMIN Positioned on the fringes of the thriving market town of Attleborough, West Carr Road offers the perfect balance of countryside calm and everyday convenience. Set against a backdrop of open fields this sought-after address enjoys a semi-rural feel while remaining just moments from the heart of the town.

Attleborough itself is a vibrant and well-connected community, offering a blend of independent shops, cafés, and essential amenities. With a railway station providing direct links to Norwich, Cambridge and London, and easy access to the A11, the location is ideal for both commuters and families seeking the best of both worlds.

West Carr Road is exceptionally well placed for access to a range of respected local schools. Within the town, Attleborough Primary School and Fairfield Primary School are both popular choices, known for their supportive ethos and strong academic foundations.

For older students, Attleborough Academy offers a broad curriculum and inclusive environment, with a growing reputation for academic achievement and enrichment opportunities. Those considering independent education will find a selection of highly regarded options within reach, including Wymondham College a state boarding school with national acclaim. Several private options are available within nearby Norwich.

THE HIGHLIGHTS____

- Planning permission granted and will be sold with services in place
- Four bedroom detached bungalow
- Backing onto fields
- Within easy reach of Attleborough and Wymondham
