Leigh

Powder Mills is a delightful semi-rural location off Powdermill Lane, between the popular villages of Hildenborough and Leigh. Local shops and amenities can be found in both villages together with mainline stations to London at both Hildenborough and Tonbridge. Leigh is a picturesque village with interesting period mock Tudor style properties and a village green where cricket is played during the summer months, together with Leigh Railway Station (Tonbridge/Redhill line). The A21 bypass linking to the M25 motorway network is approximately three miles distant whilst the main towns of Tonbridge and Sevenoaks are approximately six miles and three miles respectively. The market town of Tonbridge also offers a wide range of shops, cafes and restaurants, as well as indoor and outdoor pools and leisure centre. Golf can be played at Nizels in Hildenborough, wilderness and Knole in Sevenoaks. Good state and private schooling in the area with grammar schools in Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells and Sevenoaks. There are country bike and walking trails nearby connecting to Tonbridge and the surrounding villages.
