Description

Nestled atop an impressive 19th century Grade II listed country residence designed by architect R W Jearrad, of Cheltenham fame. Hamptons is a striking and elegant top-floor apartment that beautifully blends timeless period charm with contemporary comforts. Bathed in natural light, every room enjoys uninterrupted panoramic views across the rolling Kent countryside, offering a sense of space, peace and tranquillity that is rarely found.

Accessed via a sweeping paved driveway leading to ample gravel parking, the property enjoys a privileged position, set within manicured communal grounds to the front and a picturesque shared garden to the rear—perfect for relaxing or entertaining outdoors. Additional benefits include a private garage with power and light, allocated parking, and ample visitor spaces.

Ideally situated within easy reach of Hildenborough, Borough Green and Tonbridge stations, the property offers excellent commuter links to London, while local village amenities and vibrant market towns are just a short drive away.
