DESCRIPTION

Kingfishers Rest was probably built in the 1960's of brick under a tiled roof and is approached over a concrete drive. The bungalow is a two bedroom format, but as is the nature of bungalows, the layout is flexible. The current owner had two bedrooms, and a formal dining room. It has been a much loved home for 25 years and is now offered for sale with no on going chain.

With huge scope to improve this is a bungalow that can be moved into immediately and, if required, with its large rear gardens, enlarged, subject to planning permission.
