For Sale With No Ongoing Chain.

DESCRIPTION

This individual detached bungalow was built in the 1950's of brick under a tiled roof, stands back from the lane, fronted by a distinctive sandstone wall and is approached over a tarmacadam drive. It has been a much loved family home and comes to the market for only the second time since it was built.

As presently arranged, there are three bedrooms, a large well proportioned living room and a small kitchen. This though is a property not about what it is now but rather more what it will become. The price, which is competitive, deliberately reflects the fact that modernisation is required. The possibilities are extensive and Hillcrest will be a hugely exciting property to be customised, adapted, enhanced and possibly enlarged, subject to planning permission.

To its advantage the bungalow sits on a 0.25 of an acre plot and is not overlooked to the front or rear.
