DESCRIPTION

The property is traditional brick construction under a slate roof. The property has an interesting history formally being a shop some years ago and the present family having created a three bedroom, double fronted residential property. Over the years certain modernisation has been undertaken such as the installation of uPVC double glazing but the whole would now benefit from some modern day improvements particularly in the kitchen and bathroom areas. The property does offer tremendous potential for any prospective purchaser wishing to create their own family home.
