A modern take on rural living: two exceptional contemporary attached rural homes plots 8 & 9, the result of outstanding originality and innovative construction.

Approached via a quiet country lane, a long, private driveway leads to the central traditional courtyard, around which seven homes orientate with the recently released plots 8 and 9 distinguishable by their modern design.

Rookery view is an ensemble of nine beautifully restored farm buildings nestled in a peaceful pocket of countryside between Nantwich and Tarporley which feels wonderfully secluded.

The impeccable execution of the renovation demonstrates an intimate understanding of the building, while modern material touches bring a contemporary aesthetic with modern detailing and playful use of design elements introduced across the light spacious interiors.

The surrounding area is known for its open fields and rolling countryside, with extensive walking and cycling routes easily accessible from the development.

Gross internal area 2505ft² excluding garage (333ft²).
Total area 2838ft² (263.7 m²).

GENERAL REMARKS

Comment by Mark Johnson FRICS @ Baker Wynne and Wilson

Set in a quiet and peaceful hamlet in the South Cheshire countryside, close to Barbridge and the canal Rookery View development will comprise Nine energy-efficient, architecturally designed homes with a choice of garden sizes and optional land. Sharing a long private driveway, the conversions are approached via a quiet country lane, with a generous provision of parking and garaging close to the barns. The barns are a sensitive reimagining of a series of farm buildings that will be a subtle division to create a series of beautifully light, free-flowing living spaces which will frame panoramic countryside views.

RHB construction has sought to celebrate the materiality of the structures while introducing contemporary forms, extended sections of glazing, and subtle divisions to create a series of beautifully light, free-flowing living spaces. Across the development the spatial configuration is restrained and sympathetic, retaining a respectful relationship with the architecturally stunning original farm building, being the natural nucleus of the plan set around an expansive traditional courtyard. Fittings and finishes throughout will be of very high quality.

Note: Adjoining optional land is available by separate negotiation if required.
