OUT AND ABOUT

Rose Cottage occupies an enviable rural Village position to the west of Nantwich, (approximately 2 miles) in an area renowned for glorious open countryside.

Well placed to access the major road networks for those planning to commute with Crewe station less than 7 miles having direct services to London Euston (90 minutes) There are many popular schools at both primary and secondary levels, the nearest being Sound primary, with nearby Acton Primary a similar distance away. Wrenbury and Nantwich schools all within a short traveling distance. Alternatively, The Kings School and The Queens School (20 miles) are popular independent schools in Chester.

The Village Pub "The Farmers Arms" is virtually a minute stroll from the property at the end of the lane and is a recently renovated proper country pub, lovingly restored, with new management and advertising - real ales, great food and regular events and music!
