Tucked away in the heart of town, this standout four-bedroom detached home is bursting with character and charm. Once a bustling public house dating back to the 1700s, it now offers a beautiful blend of historic features and contemporary comforts - the perfect mix for modern living.

Inside, you'll find a generous and flexible layout with multiple reception rooms that can easily be adapted to suit your lifestyle - whether you're after cosy lounges, a formal dining space, or a stylish home office. The four spacious bedrooms provide plenty of room for growing families, guests, or anyone needing that bit of extra space.

Creative types and home workers will love the separate garden studio – an ideal spot for focused work or personal projects – while film lovers will be drawn to the cosy basement cinema room, made for nights in and box-set marathons.

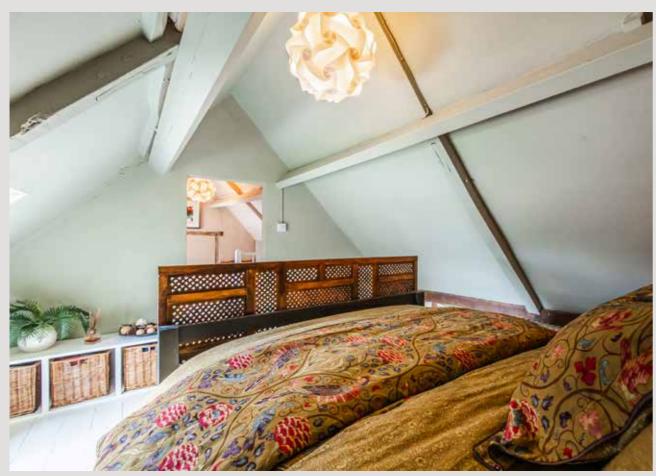

Step outside and you'll discover a private, mature garden – a peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle – as well as ample off-road parking for added convenience. Throughout, the home is beautifully presented, with tasteful updates that complement its period charm, making everyday life that bit more special.

With its central location, flexible layout, and rich history, this is a truly unique home that offers something a little different – full of character, yet ready for modern life.

Dereham

LOCATED IN THE MIDDLE OF NORFOLK

Nestled in the Brecklands, Dereham is a classic country market town with Georgian architecture and more recent developments.

In the eighth century, Anna, King of East Anglia's youngest daughter, founded a nunnery and prayed for a miracle during a famine. Two deer appeared daily, providing milk. When a huntsman tried to capture them, he was killed after being thrown from his horse, believed to be divine retribution. This event is depicted on a town sign at the entry to Butter Market from the High Street.

Today, Dereham boasts a twice-weekly market on Tuesdays and Fridays, numerous independent shops, and free parking, making it a great spot for an afternoon browse. Notable landmarks include the Mid-Norfolk Railway, running 1950s railcars to Wymondham Abbey, the Grade II listed Dereham Windmill, and Bishop Bonner's Cottage, the oldest building in town, established in 1502.

Nearby attractions for heritage enthusiasts include Gressenhall Farm and Workhouse, Castle Acre Castle and Priory, and the National Trust property Oxburgh Hall, all within a short drive.

For dining, try Spice Fusion curry house or The George Hotel, Bar and Restaurant, known for its excellent accommodation, food, and award-winning drinks. Brisley, 6.5 miles away, hosts The Brisley Bell, a highly acclaimed pub, while The Old Dairy in Stanfield offers artisan bread and produce.

With good local schools, a leisure centre, and a golf course, Dereham and its surrounding villages provide an ideal blend of Norfolk country living with easy access to Norwich and the coast at Wells-next-the-Sea, just 22 miles away. Discover this Norfolk gem.
