ENJOY MID-NORFOLK AND A SENSE OF THE COUNTRYSIDE

Nestled on the scenic west bank of the River Wensum, North Elmham blends history and charm with modern village life. At its heart is the medieval church of St. Mary, set beside the ancient cathedral grounds and the atmospheric ruins of the Bishop's Chapel.

This idyllic village offers everything you need for a relaxed lifestyle, with a local pub, hotel, primary school, doctor's surgery, post office, tea room, tennis club, and a convenient store. For more amenities, Dereham is just five miles away, a bustling market town with shops, cafés, restaurants, a cinema, swimming pool, golf course, and secondary schools.

Dereham's character is steeped in history and charm. It's home to Georgian architecture, quaint markets, and fascinating stories. Mentioned in the Domesday Book, it boasts Neolithic and Iron Age relics, with Roman coins unearthed nearby in 2004. Its origins trace back to 645 AD when St. Withburga, the youngest daughter of King Anna of East Anglia, founded a monastery. Local lore tells of a miracle during a famine when two deer provided milk for the nuns. A huntsman's ill-fated attempt to catch the deer ended in tragedy, said to be divine intervention—a story still depicted on the town's Butter Market sign.

Today, Dereham's twice-weekly market and vibrant mix of independent shops make it a perfect spot for leisurely afternoons. Families will love browsing Starlings toy store, and Roys department store—a family business since 1895—remains a go-to destination for everything from groceries to gifts. Free parking and a friendly, welcoming vibe make Dereham a delightful place to explore.
