

Preston On The Hill

Location

Preston on the Hill is a picturesque Cheshire village and Windmill Lane is a lightly used country road leading straight to the M56 at junction 11. The area is very convenient for commuting to all major north west centres and there is a selection of Local Authority and private schooling within reasonable distance. Local shopping and entertainment needs can be met in nearby Stockton Heath whilst Chester, Liverpool, Manchester etc are all within half an hour or so by car under normal traffic conditions as are the airports at Liverpool and Manchester. Trains to London from Bank Quay Station Warrington and Runcorn take 2 hours or so.

Accommodation

A most stunning, professionally designed home with an European influence with significant input from our clients, this unique property takes advantage of its location being set at the helm of this beautiful orchard boasting a wide range of fruit trees and significant oak tree.

Part rendered, part brick and majority clad in 'Canadian Cedar', Little acre afford quite spectacular accommodation presented over two storeys and most importantly is a credit to the current custodians. From the porch in 'York' stone and oak the splendid dining hall features a front to back aspect enjoying a striking floor to ceiling 'picture' window taking advantage of the garden and views coupled with an exposed brick wall designed as a reminder of the history. The majority of the accommodation is located off this central area including a beautifully presented lounge with multi-fuel burner and 'French' doors again taking advantage of the rear, a super open dining kitchen and family room with centre island, integrated appliances, multi-fuel burner and bi-folding doors again taking advantage of the aspect. Off the dining kitchen you will find a particularly useful pantry, utility room with associated appliances and a further induction hob and oven and access to the guest WC.

From the dining hall, the fourth / guest bedroom complete with en-suite and walk-in wardrobe is located with 'French' doors opening out onto it's own terrace. The turning central staircase from the dining hall provides access to the galleried landing complete with 'Velux' windows and benefiting from the floor to ceiling picture window to the rear gives access to three further suites.

The master suite includes a vaulted bedroom with 'French' doors opening onto the covered balcony with uninterrupted views, dressing room complete with a range of fitted wardrobes to two walls, matching chest of drawers and a four piece en-suite any property would be proud of. The second suite again includes a double bedroom taking advantage of the rear aspect and again boasting a balcony with superb views, dressing room complete with wardrobes, dressing table and drawers and a traditional en-suite bathroom. The third bedroom is located to the front and again includes an en-suite bathroom.

This opportunity / house would not be complete without the outstanding rear which includes the most picturesque surrounding countryside, the pure elegance of the architecture and of course the largest entertaining area with pond area to the immediate rear.

The front includes a graveled driveway providing parking for several vehicles and a detached double garage with office above. The rear (best to last) boasts a quite stunning orchard garden which has to be seen to be believed.
