Welcome to this unique five-bedroom detached villa, offering an exceptional blend of style and comfort. This stunning property features a double detached garage and boasts two en suite bathrooms, in addition to a main bathroom and a convenient WC.

Inside, you will find four spacious public rooms that are perfect for both relaxing and entertaining. The highlight of this home is the beautiful open-plan family dining kitchen, which comes complete with all integrated appliances, making it a chef's dream. There is ample space to accommodate a family sized dining suite, sofa, and an additional breakfasting suite. Two sets of patio doors allow light to flood this area along with giving direct access to the external decked area. The utility room is fitted with a good amount of storage and gives access to the rear gardens.

The formal lounge is access via double doors, just ideal for that private space to get away from it all. The feature fire will form part of the sale.

The conservatory is open plan to the lounge and invites natural light and provides a lovely space to enjoy the expansive garden grounds, which are a key feature of this property. With excessive outdoor space, it is perfect for family gatherings, gardening enthusiasts, or simply enjoying the outdoors.

The WC is off the entrance hallway.

The upper accommodation offers five double bedrooms all of which benefit from fitted wardrobes. The primary bedroom en-suite offers a large corner shower and bath. Bedroom two also benefits from an en-suite bathroom. To conclude the internal accommodation, you will find the family shower room, which is fitted with a large shower enclosure, WC, and vanity units with a feature wash hand basin.

Please note all showers are thermostatic, making for a better water pressure.

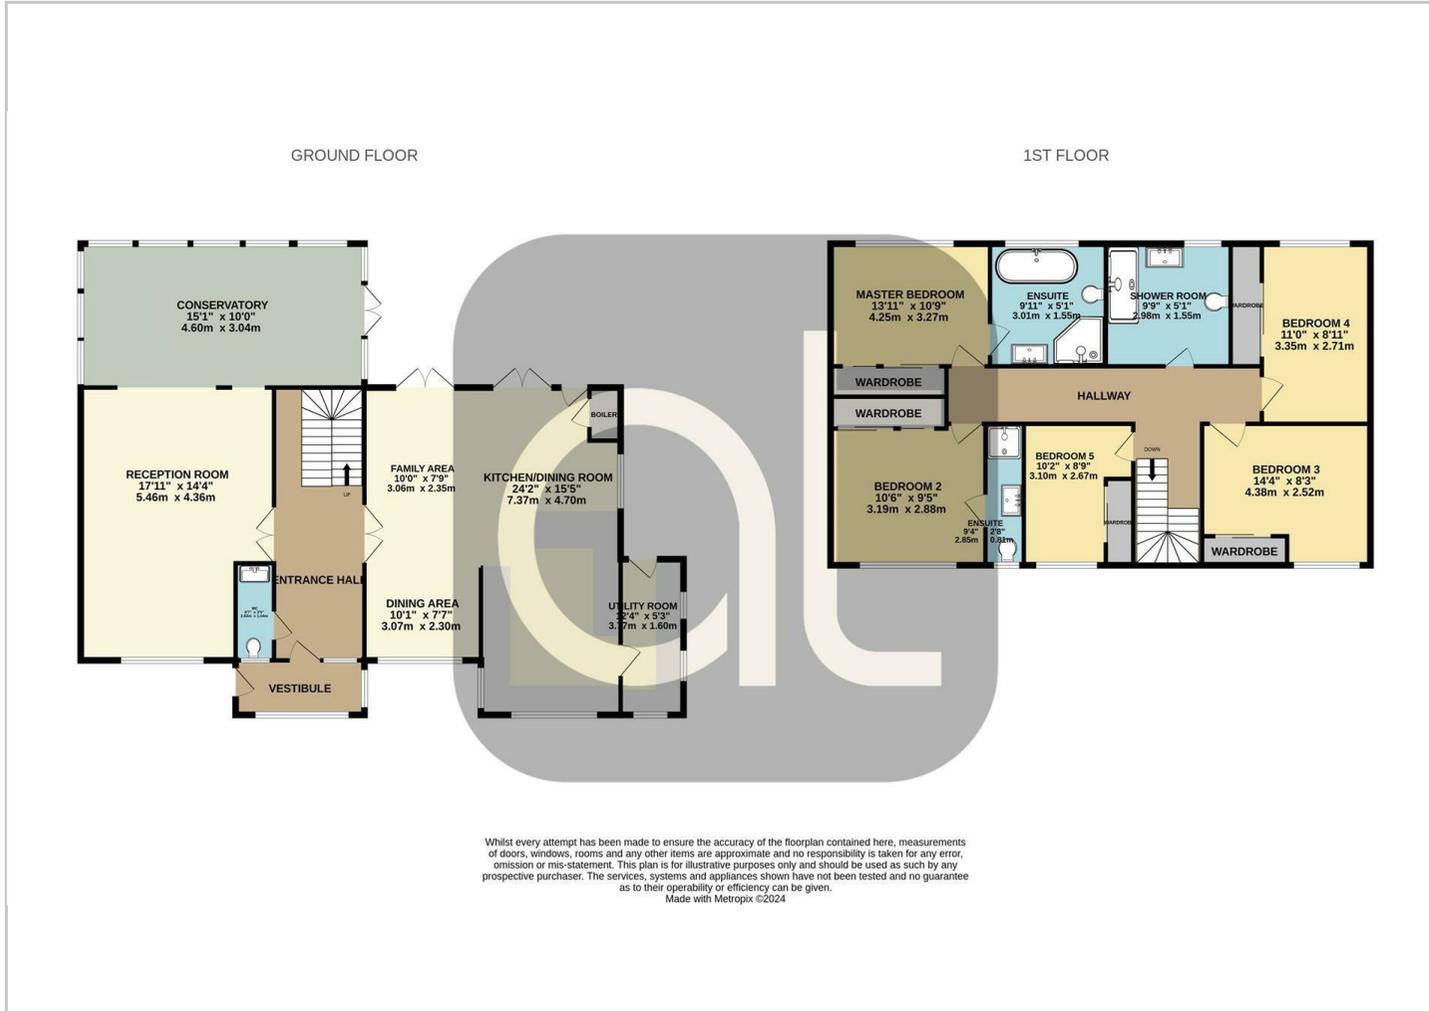

Externally, the property benefits from a large driveway which extends to the front of the property and allows you to drive in at one side and out at the other side, no need for trying to reverse your car. The driveway extends to the side which follows on to the detached garage. The garage is well-equipped and has been fitted with additional lights and electrical sockets. The rear gardens are extensive and feature a, decked area, patio area and a separate drying area. The lawn area is extensive, all of which, provide a perfect outdoor space for relaxation or entertaining, enhancing the practicality of this remarkable family home.

This immaculate residence in Bonnybridge is a rare find, offering spacious living and a strong community spirit.
