HISTORICAL NOTE:

1. Old Blandings was designed by renowned architects Deane and Braddell, London, who had a reputation for fine Arts & Crafts residential properties
2. It was built in 1933 for Miss Dempster, the daughter of a shipping magnate: "A small home rather than a cottage was required by client to be suitable for one person and capable of putting up married couple as guests"
3. Braddell was the author of 'How to Look at Buildings' published in 1932
4. The property was featured in the the 1937 book 'Small Houses £500-2500' by H Myles Wright.

LOCATION

Old Blandings is in an ideal location for those who enjoy both countryside and water pursuits, having the advantage of being situated between the upper reaches of Chichester Harbour and the South Downs National Park.

Conveniently located within approximately half a mile of the property is Westbourne Village centre offering a variety of local amenities. To the south lies Emsworth's thriving square offering a good choice of local shops, cafés/restaurants and two sailing clubs.

Nearby Havant town is a transport hub providing mainline rail services to London and the South Coast, and access to the south coast motorways and the A3 to London. To the east is the Cathedral City of Chichester with its renowned Festival Theatre & multiple shopping outlets. There is golf, flying, horse and motor racing on the nearby Goodwood Estate.

The property is well placed to take advantage of all that this corner of Hampshire & West Sussex has to offer, with the additional benefit of being within easy reach of major road and rail links to London (Waterloo or Victoria) and the South Coast.
