LOCATION

Stoughton is a pretty downland village, northwest of Chichester with a rural, countryside setting. It provides plenty of walking/hiking, dog walking & cycling opportunity with its accessible footpaths & bridleways across the South Downs.

Stoughton is also within easy reach of Chichester and the towns of Emsworth, Havant & Petersfield with their shops and rail links to London and Portsmouth. There is a parish church and a popular, village pub in Stoughton, with nearby shopping in Westbourne and Emsworth. A selection of farm shops in the vicinity offer fresh, local produce such as butchers at Adsdean & Stansted and vegetables/fruit at Southbourne.

The nearby Cathedral City of Chichester is home to the Festival Theatre, as well as the Goodwood Estate, which is internationally renowned for its famous racecourse and its motor events such the Festival of Speed and the Revival Meeting.

NB: We understand the property has a history of flooding. Please call the agent for further information.
