OVERVIEW

Rarely available, beautifully positioned two double bedroom penthouse apartment with roof terrace, situated along the seafront, overlooking, the Solent and the Isle of Wight.

Originally built in 1862, this Thomas Ellis Owen building was converted in 2002 into individual apartments. This third-floor apartment offers spacious accommodation of 2 double bedrooms, lounge, separate kitchen and bathroom, and the additional stunning feature is the roof terrace, which offers unparalleled views of Southsea seafront and surround.

The apartment is situated in central Southsea, and therefore the beach, restaurants, cafes and bars are all within walking distance. Further benefits include, double glazing, gas central heating, dual aspect to front and rear of the property and an allocated parking space situated in secure car parking area behind the building.

Viewing is a MUST to appreciate all this apartment has to offer.
