Asking Price £440,000

Calling all discerning purchasers looking for an executive home that offers bright, airy and flexible accommodation. Look no further.

This four bedroom executive home presents to a very high standard and enjoys a cul-de-sac position within this premier Redrow development. The location also means advantage can be taken of the excellent road network and public transport facilities all of which provides access to surrounding centre of commerce.

An additional feature of this property is the part converted garage which now provides additional accommodation such as a home office or gym.

To really avoid disappointment we would strongly suggest an early call to arrange a viewing.
