Aldgate, Ellesmere Port

DESCRIPTION

We are pleased to offer what we believe is a rare opportunity in the current market. This much loved family home is ripe for modernisation and general improvement. Or subject to the necessary permissions might be a candidate for redevelopment.

This three bedroom semi detached home has the great advantage of a sizeable plot next to the normal footprint. Currently housing a double garage, parking for a number of vehicles and garden area behind which is currently part of the main garden.

We would suggest that this property and all its potential is going to be best suited to a developer or experienced homeowner.

The area is well established and within a reasonable distance of Ellesmere Port town centre, local supermarkets and Cheshire Oaks. Public transport and the road network provides ready access to surrounding areas of commerce and employment.

Outside

The exciting aspect of this property, is the potential for development subject to the relevant permissions being granted. Currently, the property enjoys a garden area plus double garage and additional parking for a number of cars. Potentially, if this area could be developed the property would still retain lawned gardens with mature borders to front and rear. This area has to be viewed to appreciate its full potential.
