Nestled in the charming area of Light Oaks, this detached house on Jack Haye Lane is a true gem waiting to be discovered. Steeped in local history, this property was once a small private school founded by a Victorian family, adding a touch of nostalgia and character to its walls.

As you step into the property, you are greeted by an inviting entrance hall leading to two reception rooms that offer versatile spaces for relaxation and entertainment. The lounge exudes warmth, the fitted kitchen is perfect for culinary adventures, and the sitting/dining room is ideal for hosting gatherings. Not to mention the delightful conservatory that bathes the space in natural light. Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms provide peaceful retreats, while a study/hobby room offers flexibility for remote work or personal projects. The family bathroom ensures convenience for all residents.

Outside, the property boasts ample off-road parking, a coveted feature in this sought-after location. The generous rear garden is a blank canvas for green thumbs or a tranquil oasis for al fresco dining and play.

Whether you are captivated by the rich local history or simply seeking a beautiful family home, this property on Jack Haye Lane is sure to enchant you. Don't miss the opportunity to make this piece of Stoke-On-Trent's past your present and future. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm and potential of this unique residence.
